THE ROLE OF CIVIL SOCIETY IN HUMANITARIAN ACTIONS

Role of Civil society Actions

- Raising awareness and mobilizing communities
- Acting directly in humanitarian emergencies
- Reaching out to students to foster civic engagement and intercultural understanding
- Defending human rights and dignity Examples: Tunisian solidarity caravans, social home visits, support for migrants and vulnerable families

CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANIZATIONS PARTNERSHIP

The role Civil Society Actors Working Together :
Pooling resources, networks, and know-how
Building impactful local and international coalitions
OISAT/WASAT Partners: AIODD, MIRACLE for Humanity, BPW, FAS, Arab-West Foundation and Anna
Lindh Foundations...
Partnership reinforces Humanitarian Actions

INTERCULTURAL DIALOGUE FOR PEACE

- Promoting mutual understanding between cultures
- Strengthening social cohesion through dialogue and cooperation
- Encouraging peacebuilding through education and cultural exchange
- Documenting efforts and success stories – this is important since it links to the
- Dialogue Across Borders database of the Arab-West Foundation

HUMAN RIGHTS

- Promoting Women and Girls Human Rights
- Promoting Women's Economic Empowerment
- Promoting Women in Leadership and Decision-Making
- Ending Violence Against Women and Youth
- Implementation of UNSDGs, CEDAW, and Platform of Actions – Beijing +30, UN Women Summit 1995
- Example: The Arab-West Foundation supporting Romana Moussa to take up leadership roles in dialogue

COLLABORATION FOR SHARED ACTIONS

Solidarity with Gaza and Ukraine

🌍 In Gaza and Ukraine, civilians—especially women and children—face deep suffering.

🤝 As humanitarian actors, we must:

- Stand for peace and dignity
- Provide urgent aid
- Amplify the voices of the victims

OISAT/WASAT stands in full solidarity with all victims of war and displacement.

“There is no lasting peace without compassion.”

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FUTURE ACTIONS GREETINGS FROM TUNIS

Strengthen Coordination between NGOs
Create Regional Platforms for Dialogue and Cooperation
Train Youth in Values of Peace, Tolerance and Solidarity
Promote Visibility of Grassroots Efforts and Actions including through the database of Dialogue Across Borders of the Arab-West Foundation

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTRIBUTION
